

Weekly Newsletter

Sunday, January 4, 2009

Troop Meeting

Tuesday, January 6th

Get back in the groove of scouting!

Scoutmaster Trivia

Who can be the first to tell Scoutmaster Male: Who is the scout who has completed high school early and is starting college a semester early with credits already on the books?

New Training Requirement for Adult Leaders

Please complete the "Planning and Preparing for Hazardous Weather" training online by going to <http://olc.scouting.org>. It is helpful to have your BSA member ID when logging on.

This is a new BSA requirement for ALL outings. Don't be the last one in the Troop to finish this 30 minute course!

Adult CampMaster Needed for February Outing

Contact Scoutmaster Male for more info.

This is an easy and fun way to get involved in your son's scouting experience!

Troop 985 Eagles Soar

Jake Johnson's Eagle Court of Honor was held on January 3rd. Congratulations Jake!

Congratulations to Austin Burkhart for his acceptance to UGA! Go DAWGS!

Congrats also to Andrew Armour who has several college choices. Will it be for fun?!? Or will it be to play football?!?

January Camping

What: Snow Tubing

Where: Scaly Mountain
Outdoor Center, NC

When: January 16 -18

Cost: $80 - $90

Scaly Mountain is north of Dillard, GA, and South of Highlands, NC.

Lodging is being finalized so final cost will be available on Tuesday.

Bring your $ on Tuesday to reserve your spot for this fun outing!

Save the Date!
Spring Camporee
March 20 - 22

